A STORE MAY GO ON THE HOSPITAL SITE.

THE NEW HOTELS NEAR CENTRAL PARK WAR-RANT A LARGE ESTABLISHMENT-SUG-

GESTIONS OF A PRIVATE PARK. Among other rumors that have been started in reference to the site of St. Luke's Hospital, Fifthave, and Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth sts., is that large drygoods firm is negotiating for the entire frontage in Fifth-ave., with a view of putting up an enormous drygoods establishment on the site of the old hospital. A man well informed on the subject said to a Tribune reporter yesterday: "This is one of the many rumors that have been started in reference to this highly interesting piece of property. It probably will be a very diffic to get the exact facts of the matter for some time, if, indeed, there is any foundation for the rumor at all. It certainly is a most desirable situation for a drygoods house. It is a well-known fact among drygoods dealers that they get their best trade and get the best prices from transient visitors in New-York. And these transient visitors are to a great extent bunched around the great hotels near the southeastern end of Central Park. There is the gigantic Plaza Hotel, the Savoy, the New-Netherland, the Buckingham, the Belgravia, the Windsor and the Waldorf, each of which is a small town in itself, so far as the amount of money which is expended in purchases every day

MANY LARGE HOTELS FOR SHOPPERS.

Then, most convenient of access are the great hotels and flathouses on the west alde of Central Park, such as the Beresford, Hotel Endicott, the Dakota, the San Remo and a large number of similar buildings. There is no doubt in my mind that such a store would meet with great success if properly managed. People coming in town to spend a few weeks in shopping strike a bee line or the nearest and most inviting drygoods store. Many people living in the interior towns do the bulk of their shopping and save up their money to spend during the few weeks of their annual stay here. And, like most other people with money to spend, they are anxious to do it in the quickest possible manner. This class of people not only have their own money to spend, but they generally have a lot of commissions to execute for friends. You can easily see, therefore, that a well-managed and attractive drygoods store on the site of St. Luke's Hospital would be a gold mine to its

In answer to the question if Fifty-fourth-st. was not too far uptown for such an extensive establish-ment, he said: "St. Luke's Hospital is not so far uptown now as Nineteenth-st. was twenty-five years ago when Arnold, Constable & Co. built their great drygoods house. Anybody who has downtown and has seen the great crowd of carriages and the great inconvenience that women have who go shopping in this way can readily understand why they would prefer to do their shop ing uptown, where there is not such a tremendous crush of trade wagons, cars and trucks. I am convinced that if a first-class drygoods store were opened on the site of St. Luke's Hospital its ers could afford to pay a higher price for it than any other enterprise.

A DENIAL FROM THEODORE B. STARR. Theodore B. Starr, the well-known jeweller in Fifth-ave., near Twenty-sixth-st., has been mentioned as one of the men interested in the project ecting a large store on the hospital site. He said to a Tribune reporter last night: "Your informant is mistaken in placing my name in such a connection. I have entered into no such plan. I am sorry to learn that it is proposed to erect trade buildings in such a quarter. I had hoped that John D. Rockefeller, who lives opposite to the Hospital, would buy the entire plot and turn it into a private park. I know that he bought two lots adjoining his house, for which he paid a large price, and there was some expectation that he might purchase the entire hospital plot. It certainly to the interests of the rich men living in that neighborhood to club together, purchase the business point of view this would be a good investment for them. It is a great pity to cut down vestment for them. It is a great pity to cut down those old trees, which have stood there for so many years. It is one of the few breathing places that are left in this overcrowded city."

A man well-informed in the affairs of the Hospital said to the reporter: "It is as plain as daylight to me that the site of St. Luke's Hospital, so far as the Fifth-ave, frontage is concerned, is doomed to business purposes. All this talk about resisting the encroachments of trade and defiling Fifth-ave, is nonsense. The fact seems to be that the richer the people get in Fifth-ave, the less they care to live in the United States and especially in Fifth-ave. Just name over the conspicuously rich people who live in the neigroorhood of the hospital, and see how many of them have enough interest in their homes to spend three months in the year there. From a financial point of view, these people would rejoice to have this part of the street given up to business, Their property would be enhanced in value tremendously, and would many times compensate them for the small inconvenience of moving.

value tremendously, and would many times compensate them for the small Inconvenience of moving. Most of them would like to move, because the constantly increasing improvements in architecture are making their present houses old-fashioned. You can safely say that the conspicuously rich people near St. Luke's, are not going to pay out money to keep a business block off the hospital site.

"Now what is going to turn the balance about St. Luke's plot? Why money, of course. The highest bidder will get the site. And who will the highest bidder be—the man who is going to put up private or flat-houses, or the man who is going to put up private or flat-houses, or the man who is going to put up a business block that will pay five times as much as a residence block would? You can safely say that a business block will be put up on the Fifth-ave, front of this plot inside of twelve months."

VACANCIES AT ELLIS ISLAND.

There are now seven places to be filled on Ellis Island. No charges were preferred against the men, who were virtually discharged, but they were simply requested to get out, and make way for others. When the immigration mill began to grind yesterday morning seven faithful employes found letters from Dr. Senner, saying that their resignaletters from Dr. Senner, saying that their resignations would be accepted, to take effect on December 15. The men were F. Vanderhoff, gateman: Patrick Heyburne, chief of the Information Bureau; John Carney, gateman; John Hogan, fireman; John McGrath, fireman; George Bannerman and Frank Steinbraker, laborers. Vanderhoff is a veteran of the Mexican war, and has several medals for bravery, won while serving under General Scott. He is sixty-five years old, and is partly disabled as a result of his military services in behalf of his country. These are the only things, so far as known, which the Democratic Administration has against him. Many Democratic leaders have been almost daily visitors to Ellis Island, seeking places for their followers.

AN ATTACHMENT AGAINST ROSENFELD.

A writ of attachment on the property of Sydney Rosenfeld and Frederick Wynne, proprietors of "The Woman King." which was played last week under many difficulties at Miner's Theatre in Newark, was served yesterday on behalf of Colonel William Morton, the manager of the theatre, on a claim alleged to be due the theatre. The property consists of the scenery, costumes, etc., of the play, all of which are in the theatre. Mr. Morton said yesterday: "Rosenfeld owes every member of his company, and I expected something would happen after Thursday night. But I was surprised last night when Bertha Riccl, the prima donna, was not in the theatre at the usual time. Fifteen minutes before the curtain was to go up, Wynne, Rosenfeld's partner, came in and said he was in an awful fix, as Bertha Riccl was taken suddenly III. Her understudy was taken III several days ago, and so the opera could not go on. Wynne disappeared, and Rosenfeld did not come at all. But a sister of Bertha Riccl came later and told me Bertha would not sing because she had been badly treated by Rosenfeld."

SHERIFF BECK CALLED TO ACCOUNT. GOVERNOR FLOWER ORDERS HIM TO SHOW CAUSE

WHY HE SHOULD NOT BE REMOVED FOR HIS CONDUCT ON ELECTION DAY. Buffalo, Nov. 25 (Special).-The charges which sulted to-day in Governor Flower's order to Sheriff Beck, of Erie County, to show cause why he should removed, are sweeping in their denuncia not be removed, are sweeping in their denuncia-tion of that official and are based on the acts reported in The Tribune on Election Day. The first is that the Sheriff neglected to arrest James Kennedy, who was busy in the polling booth of the IVth District, First Ward, all Election Day, directing the expulsion of Anti-Sheehan voters. Judge Hatch issued the order for his arrest at noon, and the Sheriff happened to run across the man in the evening and arrested him

then, after all the damage had been done. The second charge is that the Sheriff neglected to obey the judge's orders to reinstate a Home-Rule watcher, who had been thrown out of the booth. The Sheriff gave to his under-sheriff authority to appoint about one hundred special depuwho had been selected by three notorious Sheehan henchmen. These special deputies were Sheehan henchmen. These special deputies were appointed without any investigation as to their fitness. The fourth charge is that the special deputies so appointed included three profesional prize-fighters, and that every one of the others was unfitted for office, and some of them were violators of the law. The fifth charge is to the effect that the Sheriff also violated the law by neglecting to make the appointments of deputy-sheriffs in writing under his hand and seal. Charge six is that none of the appointments was filed with the County Clerk.

The final charge is the most serious of all. It is to the effect that he did "wilfully and intentionally and in conjunction with others, enter into a criminal conspiracy to violate and nullify the election laws of the State of New York." This charge, like the others, is supported by detailed specifications, backed up by affidavits and the Sheriff's own testimony in the investigation in the police court.

Court.

These charges are brought by George P. Sawyer and W. C. Jacus, Cleveland Democrats, and Thomas Hodgson, local superintendent of the Pennsylvania Coal Company, all substantial citizens, more prominent in business than in politics.

A FAITHFUL OFFICIAL TO BE REMOVED. RUMOR THAT WILLIAM C. HUDSON'S PLACE IS WANTED BY DEMOCRATS.

Albany, Nov. 25 (Special).-It was rumored here to day that William C. Hudson, secretary of the State Railroad Commissioners, would be removed from office by them at their meeting on Monday. The office has the salary attached to it of $6,000. Mr. Hudson has been secretary of the Board of Railroad Commissioners since 1883, and all persons hav-ing business with the board will testify to his thorough understanding of the railroad law of the State. Why he is to be removed, if the report is true, is a mystery. It is hinted, however, that certain Democratic politicians of Brooklyn, who have been dabbling in street railway tranchises have been dabbling in street railway tranchises in Brooklyn, and who are desirous of preventing any competition with their proposed lines by the existing street railway companies of Brooklyn, think their plans would be promoted by having some man as secretary of the Board of Railroad Commissioners who would be more pitable than Mr. Hudson, whose probity is well known.

Albany, Nov. 25.—Charles R. De Freest, clerk of the last State Assembly and secretary of the Democratic State Committee, cald to-day that he did not want the secretaryship of the State Railroad Commission, now held by William C. Hudson, of Brooklyn, an old newspaper man. It is thought, however, that his friends may induce him to take the position, as it is understood that Mr. Hudson will resign, whether by request or not cannot be learned definitely. If Mr. De Freest will not accept it is likely that Deputy Attorney-General John D. McMahon will receive the appointment. If Mr. De Freest does accept, then it is reported that Judge McMahon will be appointed as accountant in the Railroad Commission in place of Mr. Eugene B. Hastings, of Utica, which position has attached to it a salary of $3,509.

FARMERS' LOAN AND TRUST CO. WINS. JUDGE DYKMAN DECIDES IN ITS FAVOR IN THE SUIT TO FORECLOSE THE SECOND MORTGAGE BONDS OF THE NEW-YORK

AND NORTHERN. Judge Dykman, at White Plains yesterday morning, decided in favor of the plaintiff in the action begun by the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company to foreclose the second mortgage bonds of the New-York and Northern Railroad, amounting to $3,200,000. This is the case in which the minority stockholders of the second mortgage bonds contended, through their counsel, Simon Sterne, that the New-York Central and Hudson Railroad officials were so conducting the affairs of the New-York and Northern as to force the foreclosure pro-ceedings. The case will go to the Court of Apceedings. The case will go to the Court of Appeals.

The decision of Judge Dykman will probably lead to the formal proceedings necessary to place the New-York and Northern in the control of the New-York Central. The stockholders of the Central have already authorized the purchase made from J. P. Morgan, and the only obstacle has been the litigation of minority stockholders. When the Central secures possession, it is believed that there will be important improvement in the train service from Yonkers and other intermediate places.

C. S. BRICE THE UNION PACIFIC CHAIRMAN. The result of the recent conferences between representatives of the various interests and factions in the Union Pacific Railroad has been the semiofficial announcement that the reorganization committee, "so far as made up," was as follows: Calvin S. Brice, chairman; General Louis Fitz-gerald, A. A. H. Bolssevaln, Samuel Carr, H. L. Higginson and General Granville M. Dodge. It was announced that Congressman J. B. Reilly, chairman of the House Committee on Pacific Railroads, may also serve as a member if his colleagues authorize him to do so. Should Mr. Relily be named, he and Senator Brice, chairman of the Senate Committee on Pacific Railroads, will be able to see that the interests of the Government do not suffer in any preliminary plan of reorganization. It is also said that counsel to the committee will be Victor Morowitz. of Seward, Guthrie, Morowitz & Steele, and J. W. Simpson, of Simpson, Thatcher & Barnum, The committee will meet to-morrow, and it hopes to receive by that time a favorable answer from J. Pierpont Morgan, who has been invited to serve on the committee. Mr. Morgan is expected to represent the holders of the collateral trust notes, who two years ago secured themselves with the bulk of the assets in the treasury of the Union Pacific Company, and who believe that their claims are amply secured whatever may be the fate of other creditors of the Union Pacific. Mr. Morgan, contrary to current reports, has not signified his intention to serve on the committee, but he declined yesterday to indicate what his intentions were. also serve as a member if his colleagues authorize

DISCUSSING THE LEASE OF THE ROAD. Concord, N. H., Nov. 25.-A director of the Concord and Montreal Railroad states that the thing of significance contained in the reported negotiations between directors of the Boston and Maine road and the Concord and Montreal, with refer ence to a lease of the latter by the former, was the fact that some of the directors of the two roads were together in Boston on Wednesday roads were together in Boston on Wednesday morning, and that they discussed some general matters, among them the subject of a lease. No propositions were made, he says, by either party. No terms were under consideration and no conclusions whatever were reached. The situation with reference to the matter of leases remains precisely where it was six months ago. It is a fact not generally understood that the directors have no power to lease a railroad in New-Hampshire. Formerly, the directory could lease the road, and the transaction only needed the confirmation of the directors to become an accomplished fact. The law under which this could legally be done was changed by the Legislature of 1839, and now a lease of one road to another must be made directly by the stockholders of the leased road, and for this a two-thirds vote is necessary.

Chicago, Nov. 25 .- A meeting of the committee appointed by the Western Passenger Association to submit a recommendation for the settlement of the transcontinental situation was held to-day. A telegram was dispatched to General Passenger Agent Goodman, of the Southern Pacific, asking him to withdraw the embargo on Soo-Pacific tickets over the Shasta route from Portland to San Francisco, on the condition that the Soo-Pacific refrain from putting into effect the $30 first-class and $25 second-class one-way rates from St. Paul to San Francisco, which it has announced it will make beginning November 27, and agree to restore all California rates to tariff basis. The Canadian Pacific says that the boycott the Southern Pacific has declared against it is the cause of all this rate trouble. Unless some way is found of having the Soo's cut rate withdrawn it will be necessary to reduce one-way rates via the Missouri Hiver gateways. No reply was received from the Southern Pacific to-day while the committee was in session, and it adjourned until Monday without taking any action. him to withdraw the embargo on Soo-Pacific taking any action.

The Governor has written a letter to the Commonwealth's attorney in this city, asking him to investigate the law on the subject and consult with one of the leading firms of the city retained by the State, in regard to bringing suit to prevent the consolidation.

Akron, Ohio, Nov. 25 .- John W. Creech and others foreclose a mortgage of $3,630,000 held against the Pittsburg, Akron and Western Railway Company. The mortgage was given April 1, 1890, to the American Loan and Trust Company, to cover gold bonds bearing 5 per cent interest and maturing in 1940; defaulted interest is alleged.

RESIGNATION OF SUPERINTENDENT BAR-TON.

Boston, Nov. 25.—General Superintendent Isaac D. Barton of the New-York and New-England Railroad has resigned. For the present Vice President Odell will assume the responsibilities of President Odell will assume the responsibilities of the position, and no one has yet been fixed upon as the successor of Mr. Barton. Mr. Barton, whose home is on Long Island, will go there to spend a few months resting. It has been hinted that the cause of the resignation was a disagreement be-tween the General Superintendent and Mr. Odell, but this is not confirmed by Mr. Barton, who says his relations with the new vice-president are most agreeable.

TAXATION OF RAILWAY STOCKS. Hartford, Conn., Nov. 25,-The State Board of Equalization has increased the value or taxation as follows: Fair-Haven and Westville Horse Railway from $25 to $40 a share; State Street Horse Railway Company, New-Haven, from $25 to $30; New-London and Northern, $160 to $170. The stock of the New-York, New-Haven and Hartford Railroad was accepted at the price returned—$192 a share. The board declined to exempt certain stock of the Old Colony road from taxation in the New-Haven road's list, insisting that the property was taxable in this State.

Minneapolis, Nov. 25.-The announcement is off cally made to-day that A. L. Mohler has resigned als place as general manager of the Great North-ern, to be effective December I. General Superin-endent Case of the same road will succeed him.

THE GRADUATE CLUB OF COLUMBIA COLLEGE The Graduate Club, which has been recently formed in Columbia College, promises to be an in fluential organization. It is composed of forty mer pursuing graduate courses at the college. Its objects are social and literary. The second meeting was held at the house of President Low, Wednes-day evening. Addresses were made by President Low and Professors Seligman and Butler, Three special meetings will be held in the course of the special meetings will be held in the course of the winter, at which well-known men of various professions will speak. The first one will be addressed by E. L. Godkin, on "The Part Played by Educated Men in Politics." Four regular meetings will also be held, at which two or more members will speak on the work and methods of some one department of college study. The first meeting will be devoted to the "Department of History." The Executive Committee is composed as follows: Department of political science, Francis Walker, jr., and J. A. McClean; social science, H. E. Emery; economics, T. A. Wood; chemistry, H. Huntington; law, H. M. Graff and H. S. Friedmann, Greek, J. D. Rogers; history, W. R. Shepherd; medicine, not elected; theology, A. C. G. Cumminga. The following officers were elected; President, H. Huntington; vice-president, W. R. Shepherd; secretary, Francis Walker, Jr.; treasurer, H. G. Friedmann. A large number of the members are holders of the $500 fellowship in post-graduate work.

The good results of attending strictly to business are well shown by a visit to Schwarz's Toy Bazar, No. 42 East Fourteenth-st. This firm deals ex-No. 42 East Fourteenth-st. This firm deals ex-clusively in toys, and has one of the largest and most varied stocks in this city. The firm has buy-ers of experience in Paris, London, Berlin, Vienna and Nuremburg, and controls several factories. The product of these and the well-selected pur-chases of the buyers are now on sale at the store, and the display is one that will delight every little one in New-York who awaits a visit from Santa Claus, and interest those who are to act as proales for that mysterious giver on Christmas Eve. BANKS CAUGHT WITH BAD PAPER.

MANY LOSERS BY THE FAILURE OF THE EX-PRESIDENT OF A LOWELL BANK.

Boston, Nov. 25 (Special).-It appears that John F. Kimball, ex-president of the Appleton National Bank of Lowell, who reently failed, is the indorser of more than $400,000 of paper, a large part of which is worthless, and holders of the paper include nearly is worthless, and holders of the paper include hearly every bank and financial institution in Lowell, with perhaps two or three exceptions, and many others scattered throughout the East, principally in Boston and New-York and in Pennsylvania and NewHampshire. The direct indebtedness of John F.
Kimball to the Appleton National Bank equais fully $30,000, but there are other matters with which Mr. Kimball has connected himself and the bank which will make the loss to that institution much larger, probably in the vicinity of $150,000. Con-nected with John F. Kimball in his various deals was John F. Zebley, a New-York banker and broker; Crippen, Lawrence & Co., of Concord, N. H.; W. P. Kimball & Co., a Chicago mortgage firm, and Charles R. Kimball, his brother and a member of the Grosvenor Richards Plaster Com-pany, of Saugus. There are also involved with pany, of Saugus. There are also involved with him John M. Pevey, of Lowell, and the Bank of Montreal. The Bank of Montreal is also a loser to the amount of $20,000 on a loan which was made through Kimball's indorsement, and obtained, it is said, through its St. John, N. B., branch. Not only is the Appleton National Bank a loser through Kimball, but Cashier E. K. Perley is liable on Kimball's notes to the extent, it is rumored, of $20,000.

Kimball's notes to the extent, it is rumored, of $30,000.

The direct liabilities of John M. Pevey, the cotton yarn manufacture of Lowell, whose failure has been announced, are about $140,000. He was a favored patron of kimball and the Appleton Naftonal Bank, and that institution is a holder of Pevey's paper to the extent of $20,000, while Kimball holds personally $22,000, and is an indorser to almost an equal amount, which is held by other institutions. The Pevey failure is a bad one, and little, if anything, will be realized by its creditors, Mr. Pevey has offered to settle for two cents on the dollar, but the assignees say that there will probably not be enough realized to pay them for their services. The assignees appointed are ex-Mayor Fifield, president of the Appleton National Bank, and James Duckworth, treasurer of the Lowell Hosiery Company.

WERE CRIPPLED BY THE PANIC

Boston, Nov. 25 .- Lally & Collins, the well-kn drygoods merchants at Washington and Bedford sts., assigned to-day for the benefit of their itors. The liabilities are about $200,000. The assets are not known. The assignees are Edward T. Wilbur, drygoods merchant, of Kingston-st.; John R. Ainsley, one of the firm of Brown, Durrell & Co., and Charles F. Donnelly, attorney. The firm of Laily & Collins for a number of years did a fobbing business on Chauncey-st. They hired by two leases the old buildings at Washington and Bedford sts. about a year and a half ago for twenty years, and spent $80,000 in cash improving these buildings, putting them into condition for the retail drygoods and smallware business. Business opened well and continued promising until the panic. Then the firm became crippled, and the assignment is the result. itors. The liabilities are about $200,000. The assets

NORTHERN PACIFIC TO REDUCE WAGES. Duluth, Minn., Nov. 25.-It is announced here by per cent will go into effect on the North Partic on December 1. The cut, it is said, extends to the operating department, and is general. Superintendent Wilsey is out of the city, so a confirmation of the story cannot be obtained from him. The cut is probably the result of the recent visit of the receivers of the road to the West and heir determination to reduce expenses wherever lossible.

AMATEUR PLAYERS IN MOUNT VERNON. The Mozart Club of Mount Vernon is an amateur orchestra, the members of which are business men or profesional men living in that thriving young city. From the outset the club has enjoyed the Vernon. At least two concerts are given each year, and the next concert will be at the Fifth Avenue Opera House, in Mount Vernon, on the evening of Thursday, December 7. The weekly rehearsals are at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Associaon on Thursday evenings, when the public is admitted without charge. Opportunity is given at the rehearsals for amateur players who wish to join the club to show their interest and ability. Great care is taken in the selection of the active members. The officers are M. Parpart, president; Dr. A. T. Banning, vice-president; A. M. Frankel, treas St. Paul to San Francisco, which it has announced it will make beginning November 27, and agree to restore all California rates to tariff basis. The Canadian Pacific says that the boycott the Southern Pacific has declared against it is the cause of all this rate trouble. Unless some way is found of having the Soo's cut rate withdrawn it will be necessary to reduce one-way rates via the Missouri liver gateways. No reply was received from the Southern Pacific to-day while the committee was in session, and it adjourned until Monday without akking any action.

GOVERNOR BROWN OPPOSES THE DEAL.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 25.—In an interview concerning the Louisville and Nashville-Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern deal, Governor Brown said:

A STHE "HAWAIIAN AFFAIR" is in the way of a adjustment, and the Ways and Means Committee incubated, the subject of education comes once more incubated, the subject of education comes once more the front, so that "What are you doing with your boys," has taken the precedence of "What will Congress do win the Tariff?" I don't want to meddle with family matter, but I will ray that unless the boys are put in the word taking care of themselves, they cannot be mid to well educated. The Packard College teaches boys and girls how to take care of themselves—and not only this, puts them where they can take care of themselves. It would surprise many people to know how many young men and young women we have placed in business during the past year—and even during the past few months, when it has been so hard to get good places.
